SYNOPSIS

Bakun Dam is one of the largest dams in Southeast Asia. It is located in central Sarawak on the Balui tributary of the Rejang River, approximately 180 km by road east of Bintulu on the coast. IEM Sarawak Branch now provides you with a unique opportunity to visit the hydroelectric plant which could generate 2,400 MW of electricity to meet the ever-growing demand of electricity of Sarawak. The study tour will allow visitors to have a look at the daily plant operations and hydropower technology currently used in the Bakun HEP.

SITE BRIEFING OFFICER
